

“God Broke the Mold When He Made You!”

Topic – You Are One of a Kind

Text - Psalm 139

Series – Getting Ready for Monday

What you believe concerning God as Creator dictates the answers to critical questions we all face.

I. God is Omniscient (Psalm 139:1-6)

- A. God knows all that is in your heart. (139:1)
- B. God knows all about you. (139:2)
- C. God savors the noble and excellent qualities of your life. (139:3-6)

II. God is Omnipresent (Psalm 139:7-12)

- A. God abides in every part or place of His creation. (7-8)
- B. You are never beyond God’s protection, love or compassion. (9-12)

God sees and knows the reason for all things.

III. God is my Originator [lit. Creator\Architect\Designer] (Psalm 139:13-16)

- A. I am unique.
- B. We have one thing in common: We are eternal souls uniquely designed and created by God! (Psalm 139:13-16)
 - 1. God has Sovereignly determined your uniqueness. (13)
 - 2. God has impressed on the soul of man a consciousness of his Creator’s hand and design. (14-15)
 - 3. Your person and days were determined from the moment of your conception. (16)