

“Innocence: Tried, Condemned and Crucified”

(part 4)

Text – Matthew 27:33-37

Series – The Path to the Cross

Perspectives on the Cross

- I. Pilate's perspective (Mt. 27:15; Mark 15:6)
- II. The Jewish perspective (Mt. 27:17-18, 20-21; Mark 15:10-11)
- III. The perspective of Barabbas (Mt. 27:16, 26; Mark 15:7,15; Luke 23:18-19; John 18:40)
- IV. The perspective of Jesus the Christ (27:26-31)
- V. The perspective of callous soldiers (26:27-31)
- VI. The perspective of spectators in the streets (Matthew 27:32)
- VII. The perspective of soldiers who crucified Jesus (27:33-37)

- A. The Destination – “a place called Golgotha” (27:33)
- B. The Drink Jesus refused (27:34)
- C. The Details of the Crucifixion (27:35; John 19:23)

Psalm 22:18 - They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

John 19:23 – “[They] took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.”

- D. The Description (27:36)